

Wintergreen Sporting Club Bike Storage Rules and Member Agreement
Related to the Storage Shed at Tuckahoe Clubhouse. Revised 2024

- The Wintergreen Sporting Club (WSC) may request a member storing a bike to remove his or her bike for any reason at any time. Any member receiving such a request shall promptly comply. Members names shall be affixed to the bike to establish ownership for as long as the bike is stored in the shed.
- The shed shall be kept locked at all times, except when the member is present. Access to the shed shall be with a key stored at the shed in a lock box. The code to the lock box shall be given to members who have permission to store a bike and have completed this agreement. Members shall not give the access code to any other person. This agreement shall remain in effect as long as the member stores bikes or other items in the shed. All information requested below shall be provided via this agreement.
- The use of the shed shall be non-exclusive to WSC. The Wintergreen Property Owners Association (WPOA) may continue to store items in the shed.
- Members accessing the shed shall have the responsibility for unlocking and re-locking the shed so as to maintain security at all times. The key shall be returned to the lock box as soon as the shed is unlocked. Members may not leave the shed unlocked when they are away from the shed at any time.
- Neither WSC nor WPOA shall have responsibility for providing security, monitoring the status of the lock box, or maintaining the door lock. If the shed has be broken into the member shall report it to the Wintergreen Police and the WSC Biking Lead.
- WSC or WPOA shall have the right at any time to change the access code to the lock box or rekeying the door lock.
- WSC or WPOA will notify those that have completed this agreement when the code or lock is changed.
- Neither WSC nor WPOA shall have any responsibility for loss, damage or destruction of any bike or other property stored in the shed regardless of cause. Members choosing to store a bike accept the risk of possible loss and hold WSC, its members and officers as well as WPOA harmless for any loss or damage. Members storing any items in the shed waive any claim that might arise and understand storage is at the member's own risk.
- Members choosing to store a bike or other articles, agree that WSC or WPOA may provide notice to them by means of email or phone at the information provided below. The date the email or other communication is sent shall be the date the notice is deemed to have been received by the member.
